

The Martinez Foundation WSU-Master in Teaching Scholarships

The WSU College of Education recently received funding from The Martinez Foundation to support Master in Teaching (M.I.T.) Scholarships at Washington State University College of Education. The Martinez Foundation, founded by Edgar and Holli Martinez, raises money annually to support scholarships in an effort to increase the number of underrepresented students in the teaching profession.

Award Amount: $15,000 (awarded over duration of program)

Scholarships Available: 5

Campus: WSU Pullman/Spokane

Priority Deadline: November 15th

- First review of applications begins mid-December
- Prospective applicants should contact Office of Graduate Studies for extended deadline date

Eligibility:

- ◆ Must be a student from a diverse ethnic and cultural background
- ◆ Must be accepted into the M.I.T. program at WSU College of Education

Application Information:

- ◆ To apply to the M.I.T. program visit:
<http://education.wsu.edu/graduate/apply/>
- ◆ Applicants must also complete the online WSU scholarship application: <https://www.applyweb.com/apply/wsuschol/>
 - online application available until January 31st, 2009
 - If applying after January 31st, 2009 – contact coe_recruitment@wsu.edu for pdf copy of application

Contact Information:

- ◆ For questions regarding the M.I.T. application process contact:

WSU College of Education
Office of Graduate Studies
P.O. Box 642114
Pullman, WA 99164-2114
gradstudies@wsu.edu
509-335-9195 or 509-335-7016

- ◆ For more information on The Martinez Foundation M.I.T. Scholarships contact the Office of Recruitment and Retention at coe_recruitment@wsu.edu or call 509-335-4864.

