Luz Rivera Martínez is an organizer with Consejo Nacional Urbano y Campesino (CNUC). Luz will speak on State-sponsored political violence in Mexico and how corn is a symbol for autonomy and the dignified struggle for a better world. Luz has 20 years of experience constructing autonomy, organizing outside the electoral system, and resisting genetically modified corn while protecting millennia-old varieties. Her talk will have important lessons for anyone interested in human rights, women's, peasant, and labor movements.

November 6th

Presentation: 5:30 p.m. CUE 203

Informal Reception: 4 p.m. @ The Mestizo Center Clev. 121
