

Monthly Update Report

College of Education

July 2016

Submitted by Mike Trevisan, Dean

Recent Grant Submissions

- Brian French – Temple University pass thru proposal to the US Department of Education Institute of Education Sciences (submitted 7/21/16). Development of a Measure of Test-Optional Applicants' Motivational-Developmental Attributes. Four year project with a budget of $249,162 with F & A of 53%
- Susan Banks (with Francene Watson/Renee Holt) – Office of Indian Education (submitted 7/1/16). Ti'tooq'an Cuukweneewit: Native Teaching and Learning Community Project. Four year project with a budget of $399,163 with F & A of 8%
- Brenda Barrio (with Kira Carbonneau/Amy Roth McDuffie) – US Department of Education Institute of Education Sciences (submitted 7/15/16). PRIMME: Pre-Referral Intervention Models on Mathematics Education. Four year project with a budget of $1,171,329 with F & A of 53%
- Molly Kelton – sub-award with San Diego State University (submitted 7/18/16). InforMath: Mathematics to Enrich Learning Experiences in Science and Art Museums. A one year project with a budget of $28,958 with F & A of 52%

Development Update

- The fund raising goal for FY17 is $1,750,000.00
- Total commitments for the month of July totaled $44,429.00
- Alumni participation rate is for the new FY is 1.6%
- Currently interviewing for an Assessment/Discovery Officer which will bring total COE development staff FTE to 4.0

In the News

- KXLY TV out of Spokane, WA recently did a video story entitled, Beyond Pikachu, augmented reality a great teaching tool, focusing on the use of augmented reality as a teaching tool for those students with developmental disabilities. <http://www.kxly.com/news/spokane-news/beyond-pikachu-augmented-reality-a-great-teaching-tool/40714138>
- Over the summer Paula Groves Price, Associate Dean for Diversity & International Programs, led the 12th Annual STEM Leadership & Sports Camp for 13-17 year olds from the Coeur d'Alene Reservation. The purpose is to develop leadership and academic skills and to have fun in activities that range from kickball to capture the flag. Paula describes this as a long-term investment being made: “This week gives the kids the opportunity to experience college life, then helps them prepare to meet their goals for the future.”

- The COE co-hosted an educational leadership-focused conference over the summer with Portland State University in Portland, OR as part of the nation-wide Carnegie Project on the Education Doctorate (CPED)
- COE staff member, Kelly McGovern, who manages the COE Office of Graduate Studies, is a featured artist at the Bank Left Gallery in Palouse through August 6. Her art work focuses on intaglio printing and woodcuts. Kelly graduated from Cornish College of Arts. She has been a member of the COE staff for a year.