

Athletic Training

at Washington State University since 1974

20

students in each cohort

94%

Overall percentage of students that pass their Board of Certification

> 1,200

Hours of hands-on clinical experience

Gain experience in creating and running rehabilitation programs.

Work with team physicians on return-to-play protocols for athletes.

93%

of graduates are in an athletic training related profession or graduate program

The services provided by our program include prevention, emergency care, clinical diagnosis, therapeutic intervention and rehabilitation of injuries and medical conditions.

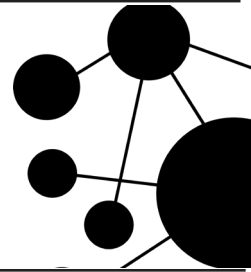

13

clinical education sites

Over 30

clinical preceptors

Networking opportunities with a vast array of healthcare professionals

PAC 12

Opportunities to work with Division 1 athletes and cover varsity athletic events.

For more info about the athletic training program, visit:
education.wsu.edu/athletic

College of Education

In compliance with the Commission on Accreditation for Athletic Training Education (CAATE) WSU is now offering a comprehensive five-year program which results in a Master's in Athletic Training.

At a glance ...

5

years at WSU

3.0

cumulative GPA needed to apply

3

semesters in the graduate portion of the program

1

required summer semester between 4th and 5th year at the graduate level

Application to the Athletic Training program will take place in the fall of your sophomore year, with pre-admittance status.

Complete an undergraduate BS in Sports Medicine and a Master's in Athletic Training degree.

Contact Katy Pietz, Athletic Training clinical coordinator, at katy.pietz@wsu.edu for more information or with questions

For more info about the athletic training program, visit: education.wsu.edu/athletic

College of Education