

Kinesiology – Sport Science

50+

students participate in faculty-led research each semester

130+

students per semester who present at the Bruya-Wood Undergraduate Research Conference

Computer-based Anatomy Studies

Pre-Health

Students go on to advanced education in Kinesiology, Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy, Medicine, Physician Assistant

State-of-the-art research labs in biomechanics, exercise physiology, exercise psychology, and motor control

Careers

Students go on to careers in cardiac rehabilitation; health & wellness programs; personal training; strength & conditioning coaching

500+

hours of hands-on professional experience

Opportunity for engagement with the student-led Kinesiology Club

Students have opportunities to present at national conferences and publish in scientific journals

For more info about the Sport Science program, visit: www.education.wsu.edu/sportscience

Kinesiology

College of Education