The Western Journal of Black Studies

Thinking About Race, History, and Identity: An Interview with George Yancy

"Whatever God Has Yoked Together, Let No Man Put Apart:" The Effect of Religion on Black Marriages

A Conceptualization of Spirituality Among African American Young Adults

The Impact of Immigration on Indicators of the Well-Being of the Black Population in the United States

Mentoring as Professional Development for African American Ph.D. Students Pursuing the Professoriate

Book Reviews

Rastafari Reasoning and the Rasta Woman: Gender Constructions in the reshaping of Rastafari Livity

African American Life and Culture in Orange Mound: Case Study of a Black Community in Memphis, Tennessee, 1890-1980

Visit The Western Journal of Black Studies Website:
http://www.wjbs.wsu.edu
INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Please observe the following guidelines when submitting articles to WJBS:

• Format of the manuscript must adhere to the convention of style described in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (6th ed.). Please use references, not footnotes or endnotes.
• Include a separate title page that lists all authors, departmental affiliations and a mailing address for correspondence. Because of the blind review process, the only place the author’s name may appear is on a separate title page.
• Manuscripts should be approximately 5 to 30 pages (including references) and must contain an abstract of approximately 120 words.
• Submit manuscripts via email to wjbs@wsunix.wsu.edu approximately 120 words.
• Submit a cover letter that requests review of the manuscript to WJBS:
• It is the author’s responsibility to secure permission to reproduce quoted text, tables or figures from a copyrighted source. If it is required, you must obtain written permission and enclose a copy with your manuscript submission.
• Final version of the accepted manuscript must be accompanied by a Copyright Transfer Agreement signed by all authors.

© 2016 by the Board of Regents, Washington State University, Pullman, Washington 99164-2103

Informations for contributors are accepted for our journal and internet site. If you are interested please call for rates and details.

The Western Journal of Black Studies
Since 1977, The Journal of Black Studies (WJBS) has been a leading inter-disciplinary journal that is devoted to publishing scholarly articles, from a wide range of disciplines, that focus mainly on the experience of African Americans in the United States of America. The journal publishes articles that, as its name implies, report original investigations and contribute new knowledge and understanding to the field of Black/African American studies. Theoretical articles and works concerning the African Diaspora are welcome if whenever possible they include data research and implications for applicability. All manuscripts are selected by blind peer review.

SUBSCRIPTIONS
For subscription rates visit http://www.wjbs.wsu.edu or call 509-335-8681.

ADVERTISING
Advertisements (including events, job announcements, publication announcements and press releases) for the WJBS are accepted for our journal and internet site. If you are interested please call for rates and details.

THE WESTERN JOURNAL OF BLACK STUDIES

EDITOR IN CHIEF:
Paula Groves Price
Washington State University

MANAGING EDITOR:
Emmanuel O. Jaiyeola
Washington State University

EDITORIAL BOARD:
California State University- Long Beach
University of Missouri-Columbia
Clenora Hudson-Weems
Melissa Harris-Perry
William M. Harris
Cornell University
University of Kansas
Jennifer F. Hamer
University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill
Perry Hall
University of California, Los Angeles
J. Eugene Grigsby, III
University of Texas-Austin
University of Northern Colorado
Hermon George, Jr.
University of Houston
Rudolph Alexander, Jr.
Washington State University
Emory University

Humanities Index (SPD), Information Center (ERIC), Current Index to Journals in Education (CIJE), Standard Periodical Directory (SPD), American Humanities Index and the Information Access Company (IAC)

PUBLICATION ANNOUNCEMENTS AND PRESS RELEASES

THE WESTERN JOURNAL OF BLACK STUDIES

FOUNDBING EDITOR:
Talmadge Anderson

© 2016 by the Board of Regents, Washington State University, Pullman, Washington 99164. All Rights Reserved.

THE WESTERN JOURNAL OF BLACK STUDIES

FOUNDING EDITOR:
Talmadge Anderson

© 2016 by the Board of Regents, Washington State University, Pullman, Washington 99164. All Rights Reserved.