

2022-2023 WSU SCHOOL COUNSELING NBPTS CLASS DESCRIPTION

FOUNDATIONS OF NBPTS for SCHOOL COUNSELORS SEMINAR

(prerequisite for components – Washington state candidates).

At the end of this 3-session webinar candidates will have a working understanding of the fundamental NBPTS beliefs and how these beliefs relate to School Counselor NBPTS Component requirements. Candidates will have a working knowledge of the writing process for completing NBPTS components.

- Three 2-hour webinar sessions
- Course material covers the 5 Core Propositions, Architecture of Accomplished Teaching/Counseling, School Counseling NBPTS standards, Writing for National Board.
- Handouts/study materials available
- Cost $200 – due prior to first session
- Communication with facilitator (jane.oczkewicz@wsu.edu) is required prior to first session.
- Webinar offered June and September

COHORT - COMPONENT #1 –Content Knowledge

At the end of this class candidates will have resources and a clear understanding of Assessment Center Exercise process & requirements.

- 8 two-hour sessions focusing on school counselor related content to meet assessment requirements/rubrics
- Prerequisite: Foundations of NBPTS for School Counselors Seminar (Washington state)
- Class requirement: Attendance/participation/homework completion
- Instruction/collaboration via GoToMeeting system – headset and high speed internet required
- handouts/study materials available
- Cost: $250 - due prior to first session
- Communication with instructor (jane.oczkewicz@wsu.edu) is required prior to first session.

COHORT – COMPONENT #2 #3 and #4

At the end of these three cohort units, candidates will have an understanding of the NBPTS School Counseling requirements for C2, C3, or C4 and a working document to submit to NBPTS.

- 8 two-hour sessions focusing on in-depth analysis of Component prompts and process.
- Cohort limit: maximum 8 candidates
- Prerequisite: Foundations of NBPTS for School Counselors Seminar (Washington state)
- Class requirement: Completion of Component requirements during the 8-session class.
- Instruction/ collaboration via GoToMeeting system – headset & high speed internet required
- Handouts/study materials
- Facilitator/cohort writing feedback during 8 cohort sessions
- Cost: $250 - due prior to first session
- Communication with instructor (jane.oczkewicz@wsu.edu) is required prior to first session.
- Cohorts will be offered several times during 2021-22 school year